

info@italianamericantheatreofchicago.com

Join us for pizza and comedy when the IATC presents:

VISPETTA!

Commedia dell'arte with a Twist

Saturday, March 3, 6:00 - 9:00 p.m.

The Ballroom at Casa Italia Community Center
3800 Division Street
Stone Park, IL 60165

Star-crossed lovers, clueless parents and crafty servants will keep you guessing in this madcap farce adapted by Colleen Mraz, based on 16th century traditional Commedia dell'arte.

Commedia is the mother of improvisational theatre and the first theatre to welcome women actors to the stage. Who better than the IATC to celebrate its game-changing contributions?

Vino and stuzzichini begin at 6:00, followed by pizza and salad. The play will serve as the "secondo," and, naturally, the evening will end with a dolce or two.

Tickets are $15/$5 for kids under 12. Any additional gifts will support the production of the winner of the first Annual Playwriting Contest and be greatly appreciated.

Email ticket reservations to address below.

a presto!

email: info@italianamericantheatreofchicago.com

...a theatre born of a shared past, serving the present, shaping the future...